

Please leave Indiana's "No Call" Telephone privacy law alone. I finally have peace in my home, and can pick up the phone without the fear that it will be "another one of those telemarketers" on the line. If I want to do business with a company I did business with before, I'll simply call THEM!

Please, please, listen to the people of Indiana.

Thanks,
Margaret J. Winn